DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The White Frame Bungalow at 3229 Churchville Rd. (MD 22) is a 1-1/2 story early 20th century house with a small corner porch located on the west side of Churchville Road about 1/4 mile north of Bodt Corner.

The gable roof has a center dormer with paired windows on the main elevation. An apparently modern reproduction balustrade encloses the small porch at the north corner. At the foot of the porch steps are turned newel posts of the type more often found on interior stairways. The main elevation has probably been altered with an enclosure of a wider porch. The present windows are aluminum. The exterior is clapboard and the foundation is rock-faced concrete. The roof is modern composition material.

Several frame and concrete block outbuildings are located just west of the house.
